

The Great Indian Wedding – 23rd November 2016

On the 23rd November 2016, the Prerna monthly club meet was held in CSOI Khanapara, and was hosted by Mrs. Smita Dwivedi, Mrs. Shagufta Hussain, and, Mrs. Bhavna Babu. The theme chosen by the hosts was " The Great Indian Wedding". The decorations were done on the theme of a wedding reception. From the banana tree and colourful rangoli at the main entrance to the exquisite flower decoration and lights in the hall, everything set the stage for the Great Indian Wedding.

After the traditional welcome of the guests, with aarti. they were given a mangtika matching to their attire. The lovely ladies of Prerna, looked stunning in their gorgeous saris and glittering jewellery. It was time now to discuss important issues.

First of all, Mrs. Smita Dwivedi shared her groups experience of a visit to Noonmati Shishu Mnagal Kendra. and then, President of Prerna Mrs. Suman Pipersenia, addressed the members and ideas and suggestions were put forward about the forthcoming release of the souvenir and upcoming event of Quizitive 2017.

After a quick and exciting round of games, the Indian wedding songs were played and everyone enjoyed dancing on the songs. High tea was served, and the food platter included typical Indian savouries as served in wedding receptions. it was rounded off with a roll of delicious "Paan". it was a perfectly glorious and enjoyable evening.
